

30 March 2021

Professor Qiu Yong
President
Tsinghua University

Dear Professor Qiu Yong,

Congratulatory Note to Commemorate Tsinghua University's 110th Anniversary

On behalf of Singapore University of Technology and Design (SUTD), I would like to convey my heartiest congratulations to Tsinghua University on this historic occasion of your 110th Anniversary.

We are delighted to share the excitement in celebrating your success of this significant milestone and the achievements of your institution. Over the long history of establishment, Tsinghua University has played an instrumental role in promoting educational and research excellence and innovation, nurturing and cultivating global citizens who are successful, prominent individuals and contributors to the advancement of today's society.

The ongoing COVID-19 pandemic is an unprecedented event which presents a huge challenge to the international education sector. However, this challenge presents new opportunities as we rethink and innovate the model of education delivery during such times of uncertainty. As the higher education landscape evolves under this new normal, we seek to forge stronger and more closely-knitted relations with our partners in this ever-changing, inter-connected and complex world. Collectively, we can rise up to the tide and overcome these unprecedented times in solidarity.

As we come together to commemorate eleven decades of achievements and dedication of Tsinghua University, we wish you continued success in your pursuit for world-class education and research. At SUTD, we look forward to taking our partnership to even greater heights in nurturing global leaders and innovators who shape the world's future.

Yours Sincerely,

Professor Chong Tow Chong
President
Singapore University of Technology and Design