Prof. QIU Yong, President
Tsinghua University

Dear President QIU Yong:

On the occasion of the 110th anniversary of Tsinghua University, I am delighted to extend my heartfelt congratulations to you and all the students, faculty members, and staff at the University. I am sure that this memorable day will mark the next leap forward for Tsinghua University.

I believe Tsinghua University will serve as both a driving force in the field of education in China, and as a leader in fostering individuals who possess a global awareness. I look forward to the future activities of the University with the utmost respect and anticipation and will always stand ready to render our support in the common cause of international understanding and cooperation.

May Tsinghua University enjoy growing prosperity in the years to come!

Yours truly,

Aiji Tanaka
President
