24 March 2021

Professor Qiu Yong
President
Tsinghua University

Dear Professor Qiu,

Thank you very much for your kind invitation for the University of Edinburgh to participate in the Global Forum of University Presidents 2021 at Tsinghua University's 110th Anniversary, I look forward to the discussion.

On behalf of the University of Edinburgh, it is my great honour to send Tsinghua University our best wishes and congratulations on this joyous occasion.

The University of Edinburgh and Tsinghua University share common values and goals in tackling tomorrow's challenges and delivering sustainable impact on the society around the globe. The two universities have longstanding links in student exchange and research collaboration, and we are confident that our partnership will continue to grow in the future.

My colleagues and I at the University of Edinburgh wish you every success in your journey and look forward to deepening and broadening the collaboration between our two institutions

With best regards,

Professor Peter Mathieson
