Dear President QIU Yong,

Tsinghua University's 110th Anniversary

On behalf of our Vice-Chancellor, Professor Robert van de Noort, and academic community at the University of Reading, I would like to extend our warmest congratulations to you, your faculty and your students regarding Tsinghua University's 110th anniversary.

Universities are special places of learning, fostering innovation and development across the globe. Throughout its long and distinguished history Tsinghua University and its alumni have led by example. Your ongoing teaching and research excellence has ensured Tsinghua University remains one of the most prestigious and highly ranked universities in the world.

Thank you for the invitation to the Global Forum of University Presidents forum. We look forward to participating, and helping you celebrate Tsinghua University's momentous milestone. We also look forward to inviting colleagues to the University of Reading when we celebrate our 100th Anniversary in 2026.

We value our existing partnership immensely and look forward to developing and strengthening our cooperation and friendship in the future.

All the best,

Paul Inman MA PGDip FRSA
