Dear President Qiu Yong!

Dear colleagues and students of Tsinghua University, we are truly delighted to congratulate you on this occasion of the utmost significance - the 110th anniversary of your renowned Institute.

Tsinghua University is widely known all over the world. Both your Institute and MIPT are of the same historical background and similar trend of development. Moreover, incredible resemblance in our educational systems, scientific practices, philosophy and values develop even stronger ties between our distinguished institutions.

I was honored to visit your University in 1998. Grand scale of your activities as well as the modernization process lasting since the 1960s greatly impressed me!

As for today, I am more than happy to congratulate you once again and wish you to follow your path towards the light of science and wisdom.

Sincerely yours
Rector

Nikolay N. Kudryavtsev
